Sugarlabs Background Image Contest

Sugarlabs is glad to announce the first contest for Sugar Background Images. We'll choose 10 images that will form a pack of user-contributed backgrounds.

1 - Create your background image:

- Be creative! You can use Paint or Turtle Blocks, Record to take photos, or any other Sugar activity.
- You are not restricted to Sugar activities.
